STRENGTH

to vigorously push a business, strength to study a profession, strength to regulate a household, strength to do a day's labor without physical pain. All this represents what is wanted, in the often heard expression, "Oh! I wish I had the strength!" If you are broken down, have not energy, or feel as if life was hardly worth living, you can be relieved and restored to robust health and strength by taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, which is a true tonic—a medicine universally recommended for all wasting diseases.

got N. Fremont St., Baltimore

During the war I was injured in the stomach by a piece of a shell, and have suffered from it ever since. About four years ago it brought on paralysis, which kept me in bed six months, and the best doctors in the city said I could not live. I suffered fearfully from indigestion, and for over two years was unable to eat solid food and for a large portion of the time was unable to retain even liquid nourishment. I tried Brown's Iron Bitters and now after taking two bottles I am able to get up and go around and am rapidly improving.

The mystery of the disappearance and fate of William Morgan, of Batavia, New York, more than fifty years ago, is revived by the publication in the New York Sun recently of a three-column statement from the late Thurloe Weed, which was sworn to before a New York notary on the 28th of September last. After relating at length the disappearance of Morgan, his confinement in Fort Niagara, the finding of a body supposed for a time to be his, and the many unsuccessful efforts to trace his murderers, he brings the narrative down to one evening in 1831 and proceeds as follows:

"Col. Simeon B. Jewett, of Clarkson; Maj. Samuel Barton, of Lewiston, and John Whitney, of Rochester, passed that evening at my house. Jewett was prepared to testify that he furnished a carriage for those who were conveying Morgan secretly from Canandaigua to Niagara. John Whitney was one of the party. Major Barton would have testified that he furnished the carriage for Fort Niagara. John Whitney being one of that party. Whitney would have sworn that Gen. Gould, of Rochester, supplied money to enable him to 'escape from justice.' In the course of the evening, the Morgan affair being the principal topic of conversation, Col. Jewett turned to Whitney with emphasis and said: 'John, what if you make a clean breast of it?' Whitney looked inquiringly at Barton, who added: 'Go ahead.'

"Whitney then related in detail the history of Morgan's abduction and fate. The idea of suppressing Morgan's intended exposure by a man by the name of Johns. It was discussed in lodges at Batavia, Le Roy and Rochester. Johns suggested that Morgan should be separated from Miller and placed on a farm in Canada West. For this purpose he was taken to Niagara and placed in the magazine of the fort until arrangements for settling him in Canada were completed, but the Canadian Masons disappointed them. After several meetings of the lodge in Canada, opposite Fort Niagara, a refusal to have anything to do with Morgan left his 'kidnappers' greatly perplexed. Opportunistically a Royal Arch Chapter was installed at Lewiston. The occasion brought a large number of enthusiastic Masons together. 'After labor,' in Masonic language, they responded with peculiar emphasis and in the language of their ritual: 'The enemies of our order—May they find a grave six feet deep, six feet long and six feet due east and west.' Immediately after that toast, which was received with great enthusiasm, Colonel William King, an officer in our war of 1812, and then a member of the Assembly from Niagara county, called Whitney, of Rochester, Howard, of Buffalo, Chubbuck, of Lewiston, and Garside, of Canada, out of the room and into a carriage furnished by Major Barton. They were driven to Fort Niagara, repaired to the magazine, and informed Morgan that the arrangements for sending him to Canada were completed, and that his family would soon follow him. Morgan received the information cheerfully, and walked with suppressed friends to the boat, which was rowed to the mouth of the river, where a rope was wound round his body to each end of which a sinker was attached. Morgan was then thrown overboard. He gasped the gunwale of the boat convulsively. Garside, in forcing Morgan to relinquish his hold, was severely bitten.

"Mr. Weed says that he met Whitney at a national republican convention at Chicago 29 years after this, when the latter requested him to write out his recollection of what he (Whitney) had told him about Morgan's fate, to be signed in the presence of witnesses and published after Whitney's death, but Mr. Weed was called away himself before he could comply with the request. In 1861 Mr. Weed says he went to Europe, and while in London wrote a letter to Whitney asking him to get Alex. B. Williams, then a resident of Chicago, to do what he (Weed) had neglected. That letter reached Chicago one week after Whitney's death, closing the last and only chance for the alleged revelation of that event.

THE NEXT VIRGINIA SENATE.—A gentleman living in the country writes to know whether the democrats are likely to control the next Senate of Virginia or not. There is not much reason for doubting that they will. Thirteen democratic Senators hold over. We need, therefore, to elect only eight next fall to secure the Senate. At the late election we carried eight of the districts in which elections are to be held next fall.

MEDICINAL.

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR.
For Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Sick Headache, Chronic Diarrhoea, Jaundice, Impurity of the Blood, Fever and Ague, Malaria, and all Diseases caused by Derangement of Liver, Bowels and Kidneys.

SYMPTOMS OF A DISEASED LIVER.
Bad Breath; Pain in the Side, sometimes the pain is felt under the Shoulder-blade, mistaken for Rheumatism; general loss of appetite; Bowels generally constive, sometimes alternating with lax; the head is troubled with pain, is dull and heavy; with a painful sensation of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of leaving and coming home; which ought to have been done; a slight, dry cough mistaken for consumption; the patient complains of weariness and debility; nervous, easily startled; feet cold or burning; sometimes a prickly sensation of the skin exists; spirits are low and despondent, and, although satisfied that exercise would be beneficial, yet one can hardly summon up fortitude to try it—in fact, distracts every faculty. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred when but few of them existed, yet examination after death has shown the Liver to have been extensively deranged.

It should be used by all persons, old and young, whenever any of the above symptoms appear. Persons Traveling or Living in Unhealthy Localities, by taking a dose occasionally to keep the Liver in healthy action, will avoid all Malaria, Bilious attacks, Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Depression of Spirits, etc. It will invigorate like a glass of wine, but is no intoxicating beverage.

If you have eaten anything hard of digestion, or feel heavy after meals, or sleepless at night, take a dose and you will be relieved. Time and Doctors' Bills will be saved by always keeping the Regulator in the House! For whatever the ailment may be, a thoroughly safe, purgative, alterative and tonic can never be out of place. The remedy is harmless and does not interfere with business or pleasures.

IT IS PURELY VEGETABLE. It has all the power and efficacy of Calomel or Quinine, without any of the injurious after effects. A Governor's Testimony. Simmons' Liver Regulator has been in use in my family for some time, and I am convinced it is a valuable addition to the medical science.
